Recommendation for Parents

Building a future

Through education, young people lay the foundation for their future careers as well as their overall life path. When it comes to choosing the right direction, personal interests and talents are important indicators. The talents particularly pronounced in each student can be determined by taking the Talentcheck at the Talentcenter. It also provides recommendations for prospective courses of education and career paths.

You made it!

Congratulations! Your child has recently completed the Talentcheck with his/her classmates at the Talentcenter. Prior to the Talentcheck, preliminary questions about personal interests had to be answered online at school. At the Talentcenter, your child's cognitive abilities, motor functions, general skills and job-related knowledge were tested.

What next?

The results are summarised in the Talentreport. It contains the individual results of all the testing stations your child passed through as well as specific suggestions for career opportunities utilising different educational paths. Your child's Talentreport is accessible at www.talentcenter.at (LOGIN Talentreport) using his/her individually created login data. You can either look at it online or download and print it out. Please also make use of our Key to reading the Talentreport, which you can find on our homepage.

We value your trust

We want to thank you for the trust you have placed in us and ensure you that all collected data will be treated confidentially. Personalised data are accessible to the student alone and will not be disclosed to a third party. 36 months after the Talentcheck your child's test results will be rendered anonymous, making it impossible for them to be attributed to a specific person. Thanks to our cooperation with the University of Graz, we can also guarantee you that the procedures used for our professional career guidance are objective, highly informative, and based on scientific principles.
